Contact Information

At General Structures, Inc., we have a non-traditional approach to managing our relationship with you. We call it “Inside Out.” This allows us to create a deep understanding of your organization — how you operate and what you need from us to be successful with our product line. Our team knows a lot about poles (some may say they know more than anyone should). Lean on us for the information and support you need.

PARTNER RELATIONS MANAGEMENT

Support for the overall needs of our relationship with your agency — from managing your sales goals and contract, PoleVault™ inquiries, marketing collateral requests, and making sure your team is properly trained so everything runs as smoothly as possible.
